

CPD question 13, March 2017

CPD question 13 in the March 2017 SAMJ (Vol. 107, No. 3), 'Ingestion of a multiple small strong rare-earth (Neodymium) magnetic ball presents a high risk of enterocutaneous fistula formation even if no other metal objects are swallowed', was erroneously marked as true, when it is false.

S Afr Med J 2017;107(4):354. DOI:10.7196/SAMJ.2017.v107i4.12470